Dear Visitor,

May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be always with us!

During the second meeting of the Preparatory Commission for General Assembly 2016, we reviewed the process for the election of the Superior General outlined in the Directory. Article n. 36,1 says:

At least six months before the Assembly, the Preparatory Commission of the General Assembly will send a letter to all the Visitors of the Congregation asking them, together with their Councils, after having consulted the confreres they wish, to present three possible candidates for the office of Superior General in order of preference.....

We encourage you to consult as many confreres as possible in this process. Some of you may choose to do so during your Provincial Assemblies.

Please email the three names of your candidates along with the results of your Provincial Assembly before September 30, 2015. Please send all your documents to the Curia at the following address: ag2016@cmglobal.org.

Thank you for your continued collaboration.
